Carefully read the entire form before completing it.

To request a refund of your Non-Tax Payment due to hardship, you must complete and return this form along with your U.S. Department of the Treasury (Treasury) letter you received advising that your federal non-tax payment was applied to the defaulted student loan debt held by College Assist. You should not submit this application until you receive notification from Treasury.

There is no guarantee as to the outcome of this review in reference to approval or refund.

If you are approved for a refund:

- Your account will be suspended from collection activity for 120 days to allow you time to pursue repayment options.
- You will be refunded up to a maximum of six monthly non-tax payments seized during the same year for the period before your application is received and during your 120-day suspension period.
- Your loan balance will increase as a result of the refund.
- You will not be eligible for any future hardship refunds should you be offset.

Please allow 30 days for review your application. You will be notified in writing of the determination of your hardship refund request.

All documentation submitted must be copies. Premiere Credit of North America, LLC (Premiere Credit) is unable to return original documents.

If you have questions, please contact Premiere Credit at 844-330-5066.
